AVAILABLE for Rent or Purchase: OLOC DVD on Ageism

Ageism - Do They Get It?

An edited version of the CR session on ageism at the OLOC National Gathering in 2008. For use with OLOC groups and the general public, the DVD features several Old Lesbians sharing their experiences with ageism and reflecting on its effect throughout society. Each OLOC chapter received a free copy and OLOCers can purchase one for a special purchase price of $5.00. Agencies, institutions and other groups, $15.00. Both the edited and unedited versions are available for rental, too. See the listing under 2008 below.

About the Library:

OLOC is proud to say that we have a fine and growing media collection available for OLOC members and supporters to borrow. We also have copies of DVDs from the OLOC Herstory Collection available for purchase.

The Library is focused on Old Lesbians, though we do have a few selections that feature young Lesbians and/or old women who may or may not be or have been Lesbians but are of interest to Old Lesbians. We also have a few that include men.

Each time the list is updated, it will be posted on our website, oloc.org, under Resources. There will also be an announcement in the OLOC Reporter, our quarterly newsletter.

OLOC Herstory Collection:

Our collection of CDs and DVDs that document the story of OLOC as an organization is rapidly expanding. Our long-time videographer, Cristina Vegas, is hard at work providing us with many edited and unedited DVDs of our OLOC herstory. We have a whole section of them available for your viewing or listening pleasure, with more to come. Copies are also available for purchase.

Donations accepted:

Check in with Susan before making any donations of media of any type, as our storage space is limited. Also, please send us CDs or DVDs of appearances of individual Lesbians connected with OLOC, like the ones in our radio show section. A donation of money for purchase of new media is always welcome, too.

How to borrow our media:

We ask a donation of $5.00 or more per item to cover the costs of mailing them to you. We ask that you keep them for no longer than two weeks. Also, check in with Susan for possible reduced rates if you want to borrow more than one at a time.

Use the addresses that follow to:

- request an email or print list
- borrow or buy one or more of the disks. Note that the only disks available for purchase from OLOC are those owned by OLOC in the section called OLOC Herstory. For others, search the internet or go to a source like Wolfe Video or the film's website.

susan@oloc.org Susan Wiseheart, HC 73 Box 169C, Drury MO 65638. If you are requesting a print list, send Susan an SASE with postage for 2 ounces.

To pay by check, send to Susan made out to OLOC along with your order.

For PayPal or credit card payment, send your order by e-mail to Susan and note that you have paid by PayPal.

To order through a PayPal account (direct transfer of funds), use the donate button on oloc.org and be sure to write "media rental" on the form.

To pay by credit card, use the donate button at oloc.org. PayPal administers credit card payments whether or not you have a PayPal account. Just follow the instructions under the icons of the credit cards. Note that you do not need a PayPal account to use credit cards through PayPal.

General Interest Media Library including new Activism section at the end.

Note that all of these items are copyrighted and are not available for purchase from OLOC. If you want to purchase one, contact Susan for ideas of where to find them. They are also all copyrighted and are for home use only. If you want to show them to the public, you must contact the distributor and make arrangements (and possibly pay a fee) to do so. Information about most of them can be found online.

Documentaries on DVD. Home Use Only. A few are also on VHS.

- A Place to Live: The Story of Triangle Square The story of the founding of Triangle Square, a living center for low income old gay men and Lesbians. Located in West Hollywood, CA, Triangle Square is one of few such places in existence. DVD ONLY 81 minutes. 2008
- All Aboard: Rosie's Family Cruise A moving film of 100s of gay, lesbian, bisexual and straight families who join Rosie and her family on a cruise from New York to the Bahamas and back. Not many Old Lesbians, but still interesting and enjoyable. DVD ONLY 91 minutes. 2006
- Audre Lorde: The Berlin Years: 1984 to 1992 was released on the 20th anniversary of Audre Lorde's passing. The acclaimed Black Lesbian feminist poet and activist lived in Berlin for eight years, helping ignite the Afro-German Movement and making lasting contributions to the German political and cultural scene before and after the fall of the Berlin Wall and German reunification. It shows Lorde both on and offstage in her full irresistible persona. DVD ONLY 79 minutes. Languages: English and German/ Subtitles: English, Spanish, German, French. Study guide available on the film's website. 2012
- Barbara and Tibby: A Love Story in the Face of Hate They had been together for 39 years when this was made. A law passed in Virginia in 2004 led to them leaving their home to escape oppression as Lesbians. Gaye Adegbalola featured. Gaye's once-partner Suzanne Moe made the film. DVD ONLY 38 minutes. 2004
- Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin Bayard Rustin was out as a gay man in the midst of the Civil Rights Movement of the 60s when he worked with Dr. Martin Luther King and many others. He was the main man behind the 1953 March on Washington. The sound track features him singing in a beautiful voice. OLOC member Mandy Carter led the work of the Black Justice Coalition in celebrating both what would have been Bayard Rustin's 100th birthday in 2012 and acknowledgement of his work in the 50 year celebration of the March on Washington. The film is engaging, wise and beautifully made. Well worth seeing and we are urging all with OLOC connections to do so. Award Winning. DVD ONLY: 84 minutes without extras. 2003

- Celebrating the Life of Del Martin (also includes One Wedding and Revolution. See below for description). Debra Chasnoff gave us a copy of the film that says goodbye to Del at her memorial. Includes appearances by many familiar faces and many moving speeches and wonderful music performances. DVD ONLY 58 minutes Subtitles for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 2012
- Dedication of the Blue Lunden Reception Room at the Gay and Lesbian Center of Key West, Florida August 21, 1999 This DVD captures the speeches and awards preceding the ribbon cutting for the Blue Lunden room at the center and feature OLOCer Harriet Marks-Spencer, chief organizer of the event, public officials, and Blue's daughter and grandson. DVD ONLY: 37 minutes. 1999
- Edie and Thea: A Very Long Engagement Yes, the Edie Windsor that propelled the Supreme Court into dealing with the implications of the horrid Defense of Marriage Act and her amazing and delightful partner/spouse/wife (not sure what they called each other). Thea is now dead, but this shows the two of them in their full relationship glory. Touching and well worth the time. DVD 61 minutes. English/optional subtitles. 2009
- Ellen Spangler & Mary Alice Stout: Alapine Village Interviews with OLOC members Ellen and Mary Alice about their lives and their present home at Alapine Village with an emphasis on building Lesbian community and building environmentally sound houses. Part of a series about Lesbian Landykes that is underway by Lesbian and Landyke Documentary Media Projects. DVD ONLY 110 minutes. 2006
- Golden Threads The story of the founding of Golden Threads featuring founder Christine Burton, with footage of the summer Golden Threads events in progress VHS and DVD 57 minutes. 1997
- High Heels on Wheels One of eight "outstanding Lesbian Short Films" on She Likes Girls 2, distributed by Wolfe Video, Donna Cassyd (OLOC member) and Leslie Sloan document Lesbians of women's roller derby from the late 60s and early 70s. DVD ONLY 11 minutes. 2005 The other shorts do not feature Old Lesbians but are interesting and engaging. The entire DVD is 129 minutes. Compilation made in 2008.

- In The Life: Documentary stories from the gay experience: The Best of In The Life 2006-2008 The 16th and 17th seasons of this Emmy-nominated news magazine featuring seven shorts on various topics, including (Old Lesbian) Kate Clinton interviewing Margaret Cho on the presidential race and other things and one on Caffè Cino, which in the late 50s and early 60s in Greenwich Village was a vibrant meeting place for the gay community, the beginning of independent theater, and has interviews with a couple of Old women who are most likely Lesbians, though it mostly features men, as it did in its day. DVD ONLY Episodes range from 7 to 18 minutes for a total of approximately 92 minutes. 2008.

- Last Call at Maud's “An entertaining...engaging...informative...incisive look at lesbian social revolution.” The story of the life and times of the world's longest running lesbian bar, San Francisco's Maud's. More than a few Old Lesbians were acquainted with this cherished landmark. Los Angeles Times. VHS and DVD ONLY 77 minutes. 1983
- Lesbiana: A Parallel Revolution is loaded with footage and stories from the 80s and present day Lesbians living on Lesbian land and in cities, creating Lesbian culture. You are sure to see some familiar faces, including OLOC members. This film was a huge hit in the Media Room at the 2012 Gathering. DVD ONLY. 63 minutes. French and English/English subtitles. 2012
- Living With Pride: Ruth Ellis @100 The story of Ruth's life as a Lesbian in Springfield, Illinois and Detroit. Born in 1899, she was at one time the oldest “out” African American Lesbian VHS and DVD 60 minutes. 1999.
- Look Us In The Eye: The Old Women's Project Features many Old Lesbians, along with some other old women. It's the story of the activist project in San Diego and there are many great anti-ageist quotes within it. DVD ONLY 25 minutes. 2006
- Maggie Growls An entertaining look at the legacy and advocacy of the Gray Panthers' Maggie Kuhn. Although Maggie was not a Lesbian, her life was an inspiration to activists of all ages. DVD ONLY 56 minutes. 2002.
- Max Dashu's Suppressed Histories Archives: Women's Power in Global Perspective. Max has been collecting slides of powerful women for decades. This is a DVD of “a rich tapestry of women famous and anonymous”, a slide show extraordinaire. “A stunning visual history displaying the range of female leadership, wisdom, courage and creativity over thousands of years and around the world”, complete with Max herself narrating. DVD ONLY 86 minutes. 2008
- Mom's Apple Pie: The Heart of the Lesbian Mother's Custody Movement This moving documentary tells the story of the 1970s horrific custody battles for Lesbian mothers. Narrated by Kate Clinton and rich with archival photos from JEB (Joan E. Biron) and OLOC member Cathy Cade, it recalls a time of tumult through the stories of those who were involved. DVD ONLY 60 minutes. 2006

- No Need to Repent: The Ballad of Rev. Jan Griesinger This is a Jan-authorized copy of a film made about one of OLOC's present co-directors. An inspiring and moving look at her activist life. It's fun to see her at various ages, too. VHS and DVD 27 minutes. 1989
- No Secret Anymore: The Times of Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon The story of Del and Phyl's long activist careers, from the early days of the Daughters of Bilitis on into the 21st century. This is a must-see movie. DVD ONLY 57 minutes. 2003
- One Wedding and A Revolution The day San Francisco said I do. A Debra Chasnoff film about the marriage of Phyllis Lyon and Del Martin in San Francisco in 2004. Touching and informative story of the decision on the part of Mayor Gavin Newsome to carry out justice. DVD ONLY 19 minutes. 2004
- The Passionate Pursuits of Angela Bowen OLOC members (now married) Angela Bowman (subject) and Jennifer Abod (filmmaker) collaborated on this fascinating and lovable film of Angela's amazing life as a dancer and feminist Lesbian activist. Fabulous. DVD ONLY 39 minutes. 2012
- Passionate Politics: The Life and Work of Charlotte Bunch tells the story of Charlotte's lifelong dedication to social justice, embraced and valued by women across the globe. Charlotte spoke at the 2012 Gathering and introduced the film, which was highly acclaimed. Charlotte came out with Rita Mae Brown back in the day. DVD ONLY 58 minutes plus English and Spanish subtitles, 55 minutes of extras and, on the film's website, a study guide. 2011
- Project Visibility A film to bring awareness and a face to the issues of aging as an LGBT and partially funded by Northern Colorado OLOC, it is for those who provide service to LGBT Elders. Includes a manual, a 39-slide power point presentation with many facts and the film. Film is available in both DVD and VHS and is 22 minutes. 2004
- Radical Harmonies Many Old (and some young) Lesbian musicians (including lots of Alix Dobkin) appear in this story of "the movement that exploded the gender barriers in music", Women's Music. This music influenced our senses of self profoundly. Available in both DVD and VHS. 90 Minutes. 2002

- Ruthie and Connie: Every Room in the House Billed as the hilarious and heartwarming story of the Lesbians (yes, they are part of OLOC!) who made history in New York City by winning a lawsuit instituting domestic partner benefits for all New York City employees. VHS and DVD 55 minutes, 2002
- Senior Beat A Madison Wisconsin program on public television which addresses, in two segments, old and young LGBT concerns. A good look at what issues Old Lesbians are thinking about compared to young ones as well as the ones that affect both groups. DVD ONLY 30 minutes. 2007.
- Some Ground to Stand On Features Blue Lunden, a working class activist who, beginning in the 1950s, was involved with lesbian, feminist and anti-nuclear movements. Filmed by Joyce Warshow, who also worked on a film about Shevy Healy. VHS and DVD 35 minutes. 1998
- still kicking – Six artistic women of Project Arts and Longevity in San Francisco. “Very old women, still active artists, living with zest.” No out Lesbians, but fascinating women with a variety of interests. DVD ONLY 36 minutes. 2006
- Ten More Good Years: The Battle for LGBT Rights is Far From Over This film follows four LGBT Old People (mostly men) and explores reasons for LGBT people left alone without financial stability and reasons why some return to the closet. Men and women who work in the aging field give opinions and one of the OLOC Steering Committee (Tita Caldwell) says a sentence or two at a listening session. DVD ONLY 71 minutes. 2008
- The Colorful Life of Alta Fly From Wingspan’s “Colorful Life Series”, which features LGBT people in Tucson, AZ, comes a fascinating interview with Alta Fly, OLOC member who has led an exceedingly interesting life and tells a great story. DVD ONLY 87 minutes. 2009
- Ugly Ducklings The Documentary The story of a theater troupe of girls and women in Maine rehearsing and preparing for presentation of Carolyn Gage’s play Ugly Ducklings, about a group of girls at a summer camp and the Lesbian baiting, homophobia and suicidal impulses amongst today’s youth. It is an excellent production and highly moving. If you were ever a girl struggling with your lesbianism, you will relate to this movie. You will relate to it even if you weren’t. DVD ONLY 54 minutes. 2006

- Winnie Freed: Alapine Village An interview with OLOC member Winnie, who lives in a Lesbian village and talks about why she does and about how they address issues of aging plus tells stories of her life. Part of a series about Lesbian Landykes that is underway by Lesbian and Landyke Documentary Media Projects. DVD ONLY 91 minutes. 2006
- West Coast Crones: A Glimpse Into the Lives of Nine Old Lesbians Yes, indeed, exactly as it says and at least five of them are or were OLOC members. Given to us by Lucille Frey. A real treasure. VHS and DVD Approximately 30 minutes. 1990.

ACTIVISM SECTION

DVDs that educate about some of the areas of activism OLOC supports. Mirrors of Privilege has been moved into this section. (Not Available for Purchase from OLOC. Home Use Only.)

9500 Liberty The compelling story of how Manassas County Virginia passed a law requiring police to check immigration status of people suspected of being undocumented. Made by two young filmmakers, one a woman, the film traces the course of what happens as a result. It should have been a cautionary tale for Arizona and Alabama and other places passing similar laws. 80 minutes plus bonus features. 2009

The Dark Side of Chocolate An undercover filmmaker takes a look at the practice of child slavery in the chocolate industry, attending chocolate conventions in Europe and secretly capturing young children at work on plantations in West Africa. It's enough to cause you to be careful what chocolate you buy! DVD ONLY 47 minutes. 2010

Mirrors of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible Shows members of a group of "white" people telling stories of how they have worked to "gain insight into what it means to challenge notions of racism and white supremacy in the United States". Not focused on Old Lesbians, but of deep interest to all of us. DVD ONLY 50 minutes. 2006

Miss Representation: You Can't Be What You Can't See takes a sometimes hard to watch look at the representation of women and girls by the media. Provocative interviews with Dr. Condoleezza Rice, Nancy Pelosi, Katie Couric, Rachel Maddow, Gloria Steinem and others, including several teenaged girls and boys and several experts on the development of media over the decades. Startling facts and statistics guaranteed to support activism. The sexism affects our entire society and particularly hurts girls and women. An Oprah Documentary Club selection. DVD Only 88 minutes. Extras. 2012

Papers The story of undocumented youth and the enormous challenges they face as they turn 18 without legal status. DVD ONLY. 88 minutes. 2010.

Walmart: The High Cost of Low Price Known for many nefarious practices from lying about where things they sell are made to treating women badly to stopping labor unions and scamming employees, Walmart, one of the biggest corporations in the world, is revealed in this film by Robert Greenwald. DVD

ONLY 97 minutes with 20 minutes of extras. 2005

Drama on DVD (Not available for purchase from OLOC. Home Use Only.)

- Hannah Free Starring Sharon Gless, this movie follows the story of a pair of Lesbians from childhood to old age. The present time takes place in a nursing home where the character played by Gless struggles to have access to her long-time lover, opposed by part of her lover's family and aided by another part. DVD ONLY 86 minutes not including extras. 2009
- Mrs. Steven's Hears the Mermaids Singing A movie based on the novel by May Sarton, which was at least somewhat autobiographical. Compared to Masterpiece Theater in terms of quality and pacing. DVD ONLY 120 minutes. 2004
- Strangers in Good Company The Film Board of Canada classic about a group of women stranded together on a bus trip and how they cope and interact. One is an out Lesbian (in the story and in life) Mary Meigs (now deceased). DVD ONLY 105 minutes. 1990

Comedy on DVD (Not available for purchase from OLOC. Home Use Only.)

- Laughing Matters Hysterical performances by some of our favorite Lesbian comics, some of whom are about to be old if they aren't already; Kate Clinton, Marga Gomez, Karen Williams and Suzanne Westenhoefer will tickle your funny bone hard. DVD ONLY 60 minutes 2004
- Laughing Matters...The Men Filmmaker Andrea Meyerson who made Laughing Matters (see above) followed it up with a similar one featuring gay men comics Bruce Vilanch, Alec Mapa, Bob Smith, Scott Kennedy, Andre Kelley and Eddy Sarfaty. DVD ONLY 83 minutes. 2007
- More Comedy and Song: The Topp Twins Section
The Topp Twins have delighted audiences in the United States at Festivals and other venues (and in other places in the world, too). At home in Aotearoa (New Zealand), they are icons of the mainstream with a highly popular television show and an award-winning country music album. They are the world's only yodeling country singing-and-comedy Lesbian sibling duo. We have a couple of their commercial DVDs to share and a few episodes of the t.v. show they once gave Alix and have agreed we can offer to all of you. Okay, they are not quite Old Lesbians yet, but they will be soon and they sure can make some Old Lesbians laugh!
- The Topp Twins: Seven Episodes of the Topp Twins award-winning comedy TV series. See the Topp in several of the characters they play in the show. Known for an irrepressible sense of fun, you will laugh loudly.
- Includes extras. DVD ONLY. Most episodes are about 22 minutes. 2003
- The Topp Twins: More episodes. Jools and Linda in Speedway, Waka, Polo from 1996 and Wine and Food from 1998. This is the one they gave us special permission to transfer from VHS and loan to all of you! DVD ONLY About 3 hours.
- The Topp Twins: Untouchable Girls. The story of the twins lives and rise to fame. By the time they made the cover, the film had won six awards at film festivals around the world. Engaging and completely wacky, these two sang at the frontlines of every major political movement in their homeland of New Zealand as totally out Lesbians. Gotta Love Em! DVD ONLY 84 minutes 2011

1. Bay Area OLOC on KPFA

Susan Chacin created a marvelous radio show about OLOC. It aired on June 23, 2008 on Women's Magazine, KPFA Pacifica Community Radio 91.1, Berkeley (the first community supported radio in the U.S.). Featuring a whole bouquet of amazing OLOC Lesbians speaking of their experiences with OLOC and with being Old Lesbians, it is a 'must hear' show. CD cut 32 minutes.

2. Jean Mountaingrove interviewed by Amalya Peck on Karen Tate's Internetradiovoices.com show called Voices of the Sacred Feminine, October 22, 2008. Jean was one of the founders and publishers of Womanspirit Magazine and is a long time landyke, living at Rootworks in Southern Oregon. The interview is about some of the vital work she has done during her life. CD cut 30 minutes.

3. Jan Griesinger, OLOC co-director, interviewed about OLOC on WFHB's BloomingOut show from Bloomington, Indiana. CD cut 10 minutes.
